Fall 2022 Book Groups

*Register by Sept 16

The ONE WKU Books & Media Groups are up and running again! Each selection was picked by a graduate of the 2022 One WKU Inclusive Teaching Academy with the intention of prompting scholarly conversations aimed at creating real change here at WKU. The following is the 2022 fall faculty series:

- The Academic Kitchen with Lynn Hazlett
  - Date & times collaboratively decided after registration.
- Invisible Women: Data Bias in a World Designed for Men with Dawn Winters & Robin Ayers
  - Books for this group will be purchased for participants after the registration has closed, Sponsored by the WKU Gender & Women's Studies Program
  - Date & times collaboratively decided after registration.
- Grading for Equity: What it is, why it matters, and how it can transform schools and classrooms with Brittany Martin
  - Materials available online; hang tight before purchasing
  - Date & times collaboratively decided after registration.

Normally the groups meet about three times during the semester to discuss the materials. The last meeting is geared toward using the materials and discussions to create an action plan that can be used personally/individually, within particular units/departments/colleges, or university wide.

Hi Everyone,

On behalf of Robin, ONE WKU, and myself, I want to thank you for signing up for this book group! The books should be on campus by the end of next week, and our plan is to get them in people's hands and schedule two to three meetings to discuss the contents and a plan of action.

Because of the size of the group, we likely will not find a day/time that works for everyone and will plan to meet later in the afternoon (after 3:30 on MW or after 3:45 on TR). If there is a day of the week that does not work for you on a regular basis, please let us know by replying to this email.

Again, we appreciate your patience as we wait for the books —look for an email soon for when they arrive!

Hi Everyone,

I hope by now everyone has received their books—please let me know if this is not the case.

Based on what I can tell from your responses and our availability, Wednesday afternoon is going to work best for the majority. On Wednesday, October 26 at 3:30 on Zoom we will discuss the first eight chapters, so until the end of Chapter 8: “One-Size-Fits-Men.”

I will send an Outlook invite with the Zoom link shortly!

Hi Everyone,

Robin and I are looking forward to hosting you via Zoom for our meeting tomorrow. We know this is a busy time of the semester, so don't hesitate to join even if you haven't finished the chapters. In fact, the chapters read a bit like stand-alone essays, so if you are short on time, choose one of the numbered chapters on which to focus/read.

On that note, tomorrow we will be breaking into small groups to discuss for a bit. If there is a chapter that you would prefer to discuss, let me know by replying to this email. If you're open to any chapter(s), no need to reply.

Below is the link to a GoogleDoc with notes and discussion questions for each chapter. These are for you to preview before the meeting but doing so is not requisite! Note: everyone with the link can comment on the Doc, so feel free to add notes/comments if you feel moved.

The meeting is at 3:30 tomorrow; below is the link to the Zoom meeting. We are looking forward to it!

Hi Folks,

First, thank you so much for those of you who dedicated an hour (or more!) of yesterday to discuss Invisible Women. The discussion was reflective and fruitful, and I'm looking forward to our next meeting.

We decided to put three weeks in between this meeting in the next, which will allow folks time to catch up in the book and/or keep a steady pace. It will also help with those who are working hard for the midterm elections.

Our next meeting will be Wednesday, November 16 at 3:30 PM. I will send an invite with a Zoom link shortly.

Thank you,
Dawn
