OCTOBER 13, 2023

Join us for a keynote and afternoon workshops

SPONSORED BY:

On behalf of the College of Education & Behavioral Sciences, College of Health & Human Services, Gordon Ford College of Business, Ogden College of Science & Engineering, Potter College of Arts & Letters and the Office of the Provost, the Center for Innovative Teaching and Learning would like to invite you to join us on October 13th for a series of events with renowned author and pedagogue James Lang. Focusing on his most recent text "Distracted: Why Students Can't Focus and What You Can Do About It," Dr. Lang will help us consider how we might cultivate student attention and help students engage more fully in their learning.

Dr. Lang will present a keynote at 9:30am and two afternoon workshops.

- Keynote: Distracted and Disengaged: A Return to Attention |9:30-11:00 AM
- Inclusive Teaching: The Power of High Structure |1:00-2:00 PM
- Creating and Re-Creating Major Assessments in the Age of AI |2:30-3:30 PM

Full session descriptions and links to registration are available online. All events will be held in DSU and everyone is welcome to attend.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Dear friends,

Thank you for joining us for the James Lang event on October 13th! We enjoyed seeing you and are appreciative of the time you took from your Friday to think about your teaching. We hope that you found it to be meaningful and would greatly appreciate it if you would take a few minutes to provide us with some feedback on the event.

In addition, Dr. Lang has shared his presentations, and they are attached here. If you have questions about the sessions or would like to visit more about anything discussed, please don't hesitate to reach out!

Best,
Team CITL
