Micah,

I get it – I really do. It's not a problem. I can even give you an extension beyond the end of the class if we need to. You have to get your sleep; I'd rather have your work turned in a little late than on-time but not as good as you could do because you're stretched too thin.

Thanks for keeping me informed!

Dr. Logsdon

Subject: [EXTERNAL] Assignments

Good evening,

I apologize once again, but I'm going to have to ask for your grace. I'm a principal and this is the absolute hardest time with teacher shortages. My assistant principal left to pursue a job in his hometown, so I have been doing double duty. I have been unable to complete the course work because of my position's demands. I assure you I will get the work completed, I just need more hours in the day (sleep is also important). Thank you and I greatly apologize for the inconvenience.

Thank you,
Micah Stokes
