Hello Marissa, Allison, and Anne-Tyler,

This email is just to give you a bit of info about our EDU/TCHL 560 Capstone Presentation this coming Monday from 5 to 6. The link for our Zoom room is here: <https://wku.zoom.us/j/96678432522>

If you log in to our Blackboard site, you can look at Module 5 to get some information on the presentation itself. Just as a really quick recap, it is 8 to 15 minutes. We'll decide the order the three of you will go in when we are in the Zoom room itself, and after each person presents, the other participants will give feedback and ask any relevant questions.

In the event you use a Mac computer, please go to this link to ensure Zoom will work smoothly for you during the presentation: <https://www.payetteforward.com/zoom-not-working-on-mac-fix/> If you use a Chromebook or PC, you are likely fine. Your video will also need to be on for the entire duration, whether you are presenting or listening, so please make sure you present from a place with good internet if that is a concern.

Your grade in this class (which I fully expect everyone to get an A) will be based on both your presentation AND the feedback you give to your groupmates. I'll give feedback after each presentation, and I'll ask each of you to give your groupmates' feedback live on the Zoom call as well. I look forward to seeing the results of the hard work you've done (or are still doing, in some cases)!

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,
Dr. Logsdon
