Hello all,

It is almost time for spring registration! While our registration window for spring opens on October 21, we can start planning for registration now.

I am taking appointments at this point for anyone who would like to iron out their spring schedule. Please find a time for me on my calendly: <https://www.calendly.com/drlogsdon>

Please indicate whether you wish to meet in-person in my office (GRH 1073B, in the Student Success Center) or on Zoom when you request a time with me.

Let me know if you have any questions, and I look forward to working with you as we plan next semester's classes! Incidentally, if you wish to take classes during Winter term, we can discuss that, too!

Thanks,
Dr. Logsdon
