Thank you, but if I'm going to be completely honest, I did not know I made it. I just locked in and studied hard.

Michael,

I learned today that you made the Dean's List because of your performance this past spring, and I just wanted to send a note of congratulations. I am so proud of you! Your hard work is paying off!

Stay the course, and please let me know if there is anything I can do to help during your next few years here on the Hill!
