Building Community: Fostering Success in First-Year Student LLCs

What is a Living Learning Community?

At WKU, Living Learning Communities (LLCs) are student organizations that provide a supportive environment for first-year students to build relationships and foster success.

LLCs are designed to help first-year students successfully transition to college life by providing a supportive environment with faculty, staff, and administrators, and shared living spaces at WKU.

Living

Students live in a group of student rooms, both on and off campus, and participate in activities related to their specific program of study.

Learning

Participation in an LLC may include completion of a course or two linked to the community's theme, as well as other academic and personal development activities.

Community

There are over 10 groups of students in the Education Living Learning Community, each with its own unique theme. These groups are an opportunity for students to connect with each other and the faculty and staff who work with them during their time at WKU.
