Dear Jeremy Logsdon,

We are pleased to share your schedule information for the following presentation at the 44th Annual Conference on The First-Year Experience, February 16-19, 2025, in New Orleans, Louisiana!

- Title of Presentation: Building Community: Fostering Success in First-Year Student LLCs
- Session Type: Assessed Institutional Initiative
- Abstract: Western Kentucky University's Living Learning Communities (LLCs) play a crucial role in supporting first-year students by enhancing their retention and engagement. This session will provide an overview of the broader institutional impacts of LLCs, with a specific focus on the experiences within the Education LLC. Two faculty fellows will share practical insights on fostering a sense of community among first-year students, highlighting key program outcomes and strategies for supporting underrepresented and first-generation students. Attendees will gain insights into the successes and challenges of creating meaningful learning environments for new students.
- Additional Presenters (if any):
 - Daniel Super
 - Jessie Hussung
 - Marko Dumančić
- Date: 2/17/2025
- Time: 10:00 am - 11:00 am, CST
- Room: Elite Hall B

All presenters must be registered for the conference in order to present. The link to access the registration form is here.

Changes to your scheduled presentation time may not be possible. However, should you have any requests or concerns about your scheduled session, please let us know by December 2, 2024.

We are delighted that you will be joining us for this year's conference and look forward to working with you as a poster presenter!

Sincerely,

Conferences and Continuing Education Team
