Subject: FREE LUNCH & Meeting Monday - June 16

Greetings, Team,

Hope your week is going well! We've been hard at work on two of our 2025-26 priorities, Praxis and dispositions. Drs. Logsdon and Super developed an awesome individualized Praxis plan to support all undergraduate teacher candidates. The dispositions committee is working on a comprehensive LADDER implementation plan. To aid with compliance we ask all instructors to dedicate 10% of your total course points to implementation of the school-wide plans (5% to LADDER and 5% to dispositions).

To update you on our progress to date, on Monday, June 16th at 11 a.m., the Center for Literacy is hosting an information/feedback session on our Praxis and disposition plans for the fall. Food will be provided. By way of RSVP, please email Jeremy (jeremy.logsdon@wku.edu) with what you would like from Jimmy John's for lunch (sandwich, chips/cookie/brownie, plus choice of bottled water, Coke, Diet Coke, or Sprite). <https://www.jimmyjohns.com/menu> In addition, we will also be talking about potential research opportunities, so if you would like to be on our IRB and take part in our data collection, please also plan to attend or otherwise indicate interest. The meeting should not last more than 90 minutes.

If you are unable to attend, I'm happy to answer questions. We'll also provide additional information throughout the summer as we gear up to the roll out of both initiatives at our Faculty Workdays in August (August 12 & 13 from 9–2:30).

Looking forward to meeting on Monday,

Sue

Subject: Praxis Summer 2025 Workshop

Colleagues,

Thank you all so much for taking time out of your summer (when you're off contract even!) to attend today's Praxis Workshop. I truly appreciate your commitment to supporting our students.

As promised, I've attached the PowerPoint presentation we reviewed, which outlines the Praxis Core support initiatives launching this fall.

If you're interested in being included on the IRB for our Praxis initiative, please email me the requested info (in PPT) by the end of June.

Finally, this message, along with the attached slides, can serve as a helpful reference from your attendance at today's workshop.

Thanks again for a great session and for the thoughtful discussion and collaboration.

Thanks,
Jeremy
