Good morning,

Thank you for a great semester, I've learned a lot and I enjoyed the structure of this project. It was my first time using PBL and building an advocacy plan.

Respectfully,

Stephanie Chumley

LME448-703 (Fa24): TECHNOLOGY APPS IN EDUCATION

New announcement from Jeremy Logsdon

All grades, except for a few finals, are entered

Hello all,

I have spent the entirety of the last two days grading all of your work. You have submitted some great projects.

As a reminder, if you have not yet taken your final exam, you have until 11:59 on Thursday, December 5th, to do so. At that point, it closes and you will be unable to take it. It is open book/open resource, and you may take it as often as you would like. Failure to take it will turn into a zero at 12:00 a.m. on Friday, December 6th.

As a reminder, this is our grading scale. I do tend to round up that 0.5% for each letter grade, so I'll go ahead and reflect that here in the grading chart:

895 and up = A
795 to 894 = B
694 to 795 = C
594 to 695 = D
Below 594 = F

It has been a pleasure working with you this semester. Just as a reminder, even though this was a web class, if you have done great work especially, please do not hesitate to reach out to me if you ever need a letter of reference for a scholarship, study abroad, et cetera, and I am happy to help.

For those of you graduating this Friday, enjoy the culmination of your time here on the Hill. For those of you who are returning in the Spring to continue your degree, please know that I remain here at WKU to help you in whatever way that I can!

Thanks,
Dr. Logsdon
