2026 WKU AI Conference Schedule 1.pdf;

Congratulations! Your proposal has been accepted to present at the 2026 WKU AI Conference: (Re)Imagining What's Possible!

Attached is the draft of the full conference schedule. Please take a moment to review your presentation title, description, and assigned time slot. If anything needs to be corrected, simply reply to this email with your edits by Friday, March 6.

If everything looks good, no need to reply. If you have any questions, I am more than happy to help you out

Thank you for being part of this. Your work and willingness to share it with our campus community is exactly what (Re)imagining What's Possible looks like in practice. Together, we're helping Western Kentucky University grow into the future of AI, and that starts with people like you!

We can't wait to see what you bring to the conversation.
