Good morning,

I am sending this to all of my advisees, so if you have recently graduated or are not otherwise in class this fall, you may certainly delete this email!

This is a reminder about Big Red Backpack so you can make the best decision for you. Big Red Backpack is WKU's textbook concierge service where you are charged $24 a credit hour to rent textbooks for the semester. At the end of the semester, you'll need to return them.

For some students, this can be a great bargain. For others (especially if you are in a class that doesn't require a textbook), it is NOT a bargain.

You have until August 29th to opt out. If you do not opt out, you will be charged $24 per credit hour for this service (even if your classes do not have any books). To opt out, please go to this link and select Fall 2025 and Yes for Opt-Out if you do not wish to participate: <https://app.wku.edu/backpack-optout/>

Let me know if you have any questions!

Thanks,
Dr. Logsdon
