It looks like it has been so long since I've taught 560 that I no longer have access to that Blackboard site at all, but I think I might have actually been the one who revised it about 4 years ago. I'm not huge on using Google Drive, for the very reason that links expire. I'm much more of a fan of uploading PDFs and word documents.

Fortunately, I do have them saved on my OneDrive. I'm just going to attach everything I have here. Hopefully some of it useful! Let me know if you have questions about it. I'm also happy to meet with you to kind of explain how I did the course when I taught it. One file is so big I can't attach it, so I'll share a link to it.

Some of this might be duplicates. I'm basically giving you everything I had from TCHL 560 and EDU 560 both.

Hello, Dr. Logsdon,

I hope you are doing well! I noticed on a past syllabus for EDU 560 that you were the instructor. Dr. Stobaugh's linked documents in her EDU 560 Bb site, which I copied, are invalid (likely due to her retirement from the university). Do you happen to have access to 560 course materials?

Thank you for your time and assistance!
