I do see that when I look at your summary schedule. This one is on me; I ran a degree audit, which only updates every 24 hours, so LITE 590 wasn't there yet. My apologies for the undue worry! You're signed up for everything you need.

It's showing this on my end. If this doesn't look correct, just let me know I'll drop this one and try again.

I do not see that you have registered for the 3 hour LITE 590 for this fall, but once you have signed up for that, you'll be well on track to graduate in December!

Good morning,

I did get this scheduled. I think I am on track to graduate in December. I decided to not go through with the AI certification.
