- Professor Logsdon is an excellent teacher. - This online course is engaging, well organized and challenges your thinking. The instructional videos are helpful and make it easy to understand what the task is going to be. Dr. Logsdon provides thoughtful, constructive feedback that encourages you to do your best work. Communication is timely and supportive, making the class both motivating and enjoyable. I would prefer to take another course with this professor - SDavis - There are times you have a professor that you learn as much about how you want to be as a teacher as much as the content of the course. Dr. Logsdon is such a professor for me. The content and course is fast paced and challenging, but with Dr. Logsdon's constant feedback and communication, I always felt I was on the right track. His enthusiasm for the subject is apparent and made the projects exciting for me. Additionally, I have used or been introduced to new ed technologies that I now use in my daily teaching and it has made all the difference for me and my students. That is a huge win in my book! Specifically ChatGPT, ThingLink, Animoto, and Google Sites. The only points of constructive feedback back I can give are: I could have used a little more clarification on what an Authentic Topic and IDP is or how they were to be used throughout the course. I went pretty conceptual on mine, which turned out to be extremely challenging for me as the course progressed. However it did pushed me, and my abilities, and for that I am thankful. And I would like to see what my classmates made for their Web 2.0 projects. We are all doing very different things/different content areas, and I always get ideas by looking at others' work. However, after making mine- the last thing I would have wanted was to have to view another's work... maybe by the next due date I would have been ready. Overall, excellent professor, excellent instruction, and challenging course. Thank you Dr. Logsdon. Hopefully I get to have you again one day. Have a great rest of the school year! - The instructor is one of the most understanding and organized professors I have ever had. He has kept everything well organized and informative every week.
