Hello all,

The CEBS Student Success Center and the WKU Center for Literacy are hosting CEBS Sing-o, and I'd love for you (and your students) to join us.

Sing-o is musical bingo. We'll play clips of songs (from the 80s to today), you mark them on your card, and we'll run multiple rounds over the course of the hour. There is lots of singing along, but you don't have to sing. (But you probably will.) You also don't have to stay the whole time or even get there when we start, so feel free to drop in when you can.

We're especially hoping this can serve as a bit of a de-stressor for students (and all of us) as we head into finals week.

Details:

Wednesday, April 29
12:00–1:00 p.m.
GRH 1073 (Student Success Center)
Free pizza for everyone!

Please feel free to invite your students or even bring a class by for a few minutes. This is meant to be a low-pressure, come-and-go event and a chance for students to take a quick break.

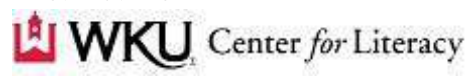

Also, faculty and staff, I hope you'll play too. We'll have prizes for everyone, and they're actually worth your time (Amazon funds, books, classroom supplies, prizes themed for both education and psychology majors, etc.).

Flyer is attached if you'd like to share it out.

Hope to see you there,
Jeremy
